Daily Agenda and Side Trips

There are a variety of jobs to be done and the schedule will vary depending upon where team members are assigned. We will leave early on Saturday, December 29 for Birmingham, Alabama.

We will stay one night in Birmingham in the home of a former member of our church, and then attend worship at the 9:00 a.m. service at the Church at Brook Hills in Birmingham.

We will arrive Sunday afternoon to check in to our conference hotel in Atlanta. Rooms will be “dorm rules” unless couples choose to pay extra for a private room. Our price for this “road trip” is based on four to a room (just like our students will be experiencing). We are scheduled to go into service early December 31. Our students will be arriving on the 31st.

We will help with the closing out our responsibilities but not with “loadout” when the conference ends around noon on January 5. We will depart around 3 p.m., and drive to Nashville (3 ½ hours) where we will stay one night before returning home January 4.

Qualifications

- Passion recommends that Door Holders not still be in college undergraduate programs.
- Daily walk with Christ

Training Meetings

- NONE!!!

Health Considerations

- While the work will not be difficult, our days will be long.
- Ability to travel by van with infrequent stops.

Clothing

- Modest, layered clothing.
- Passion requires we wear long-sleeve white t-shirts under their Door Holder shirts.
- Comfortable shoes
